States, in order to consider whether it would be practicable further to reduce the rates of postage between the two countries without undue charge upon the public revenue,' be added, instead thereof

Amendt. proposed, to the said proposed Amendt. by leaving out the words "without undue charge upon the public Revenue" (Mr. Hadfield); after further short debate, Question, "That the words, &c.," put, and agreed to; words added; main Question, as amended, put, and agreed to

Post Office—(Small Parcels)

Moved, "That it is desirable to restore and extend those facilities for the transmission of Small Parcels by Post which the public enjoyed prior to the 1st day of October 1870" (Mr. Graves) Mar 14, [204] 2003; after debate, Motion withdrawn

Post Office—Sunday Labour

Moved, "That the employment by the State of upwards of twenty thousand persons in the department of the Post Office on the Sabbath Day, is not justified by any public necessity; and that, in the opinion of this House, it is desirable that the exemption from Sunday labour enjoyed by the Letter-carriers of London, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Belfast, and one hundred and fourteen other Post Towns, should be extended to all Letter-carriers and Rural Messengers throughout the United Kingdom" (Mr. Charles Reed) April 18, [205] 1259; after short debate, Motion withdrawn

Then it was moved, "That this House deems it desirable to reduce, by all prudent means, the Sunday labour now performed by public servants; and that it is expedient that an official inquiry should be instituted, with a view to ascertaining how far it may be practicable to effect a further reduction of the labour now performed on Sunday by the Letter-carriers and Rural Messengers in the service of the Postmaster General" (Mr. Gladstone); after further short debate, Resolution agreed to Amendt. on Committee of Supply June 30, To leave out from "That," and add "an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying that She will be graciously pleased to issue instructions for the negotiation of such a Treaty with the Sultan of Zanzibar, as will relieve Her Majesty's Government from existing arrangements, by which they are made parties to the Slave Trade; and that She will use all lawful means to procure the entire suppression of the Slave Traffic and all export of Slaves from the East Coast of Africa" (Mr. Gilpin), [207] 952; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after short debate, Amendt. withdrawn

And, on July 6, Select Committee appointed, "to inquire into the whole question of the Slave Trade on the East Coast of Africa, into the increased and increasing amount of that traffic, the particulars of existing Treaties and Agreements with the Sultan of Zanzibar upon the subject, and the possibility of putting an end entirely to the traffic in slaves by sea" (Mr. Gilpin)

SPEAKER, The (Right Hon. J. E. DENISON) Nottinghamshire, N.
Amendments—Effect of agreeing to the Question, "That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question." Moved, "That the said Amendments be now taken into consideration." An Amendment moved (Mr. Disraeli): On Question, "That the words, &c.;" resolved in the affirmative. The House has agreed that the Lords Amendments shall be considered—it is therefore impossible that the hon. Member (Mr. W. M. Torrens) can move the Resolution that stands in his name on the Paper. All that is open to us is to accept or negative the Amendments of the Lords, or to agree to an Amendment which can be engrafted on the Bill.—Army Regulation Bill, [208] 1400
Amendment on Amendment—Committee of Supply—Moved, "That Mr. Speaker, &c.:" an Amendment moved (Mr. White:)—Sir Tollemache Sinclair rose to move words additional to the said Amendment. Mr. Speaker intimated that the hon. Member could not move an Amendment upon the Amendment of the hon. Member for Brighton, [206] 1445
Amendments — Relevancy of Amendment — Committee on Army Regulation Bill; the Committee report Progress: Moved, "That this House will to-morrow, at Two of the clock, again resolve itself into the said Committee;" Mr. Bentinck proposed to move, "That the House, at its rising, do adjourn until a quarter before 4 o'clock to-morrow." Mr. Speaker said—This is not a suitable Amendment. The Amendment must be relevant to the Question when the Committee shall sit again, [206] 1582 Committee—Instructions — Elections (Parliamentary and Municipal) Bill. Order for Committee read: Mr. G. Bentinck rose to move an Instruction to the Committee with relation to the prevention of bribery and corruption at elections. Mr. Speaker said, it was unnecessary for the hon. Member to move such Instruction, inasmuch as it would be in his power in Committee to propose any clauses or Amendments on the subject of bribery which he might desire. In the present instance an Instruction was unnecessary, and therefore it was contrary to the Rules of the House that it should be moved, [207] 402

Committees—Power of the House as to a Joint Committee — The Prime Minister having moved a Resolution for the appointment of a Select Committee on East India Finances, an hon. Member desired to move to add to the Resolution, "and that such Committee be solely composed of Members of the House of Commons:"—Mr. Speaker said — The only thing the House can do is to appoint a Committee of this House: it cannot appoint or prevent the appointment of a Committee of the other House: therefore the Amendment cannot properly be put, [204] 776
Committees—Practice of the House in regard to the "setting up" of Committees, [206] 1266
Debate—Explanation—A Member is not entitled to interrupt another Member who is in possession of the House, for the purpose of explaining, without that Member's consent.—Spain—The "Tornado," [208] 343, 1190
Debate—Limitation of Explanation, [205] 178
Debate—Effect of agreement to Motion, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." Moved, "That Mr. Speaker, &c." An Amendment moved. Question, "That the words, &c." put, and agreed to. An hon. Member cannot afterwards move a Resolution of which he had given Notice.—Supply, [205] 1525; [208] 430
Debate—Effect of Amendment on Motion, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." An Amendment moved and agreed to:—Mr. Speaker said that the agreeing to the Amendment superseded the Motion that he should leave the Chair.—Supply, [205] 151
Debate — Effect of Amendment on Motion "That Mr. Speaker, &c." on subsequent Notices of Amendment—Mr. Speaker said—the Government had thought fit to revive the Motion for going into Committee of Supply. The Motion, so revived, was revived in its entirety, and the hon. Member who proposed the next Amendment stood in exactly the same position as if he had proposed his Amendment at the commencement of the evening when the Motion that Mr. Speaker now leave the Chair was first made, [205] 1515; [206] 322
Debate—Limitation of Argument—An hon. Member addressing the House on the Order of the Day for Committee on Prayer Book (Tables of Lessons) Bill was proceeding to suggest certain alterations in the Rubric. Mr. Speaker doubted whether so wide a field of subject ought to be introduced in a discussion of a Bill for a limited object, [205] 1459
Debate—Relevancy of Argument to Question, [207] 1541, 1542
Debate—Premature Discussion of a Bill—An hon. Member is not in Order in entering into a detailed description of a Bill which is not yet before the House, and which is on the Paper for a later hour.—Patent Laws, [204] 1532; [208] 1090

Debate—Premature discussion of a subject as to which Notice of Motion has been given for a subsequent date, [207] 500, 1640

[See infra — Supply — Discussion of Estimates]

Debate—Reference to reports of debates in the same Session—Mr. Speaker: The noble Lord is not in order in reading any report of what has taken place during any of the debates of the present Session, [207] 905; [208] 1604

Debate—Reference to debate in the other House — Mr. Speaker: This House has Rules for itself, and they must be upheld. It is no justification of a violation of these Rules that something has been said in the House of Lords. The House must abide by its own Rules; and for a Member to pursue an argument used in the other House during the present Session is contrary to the Rules of this House.—Army Regulation Bill—Lords Amendts. [208] 1682

Debate—Moving the Adjournment of the House —Mr. Speaker explains the rule which concedes to a Member under certain circumstances (there being no Question before the House) the privilege of speaking by moving the Adjournment of the House, [207] 1636; [208] 773

Debate—Right of Reply—When a Motion is made for the Adjournment of the House—an original Motion, no other Motion being before the House—an hon. Member has the right of reply. — Parliament — Knights of Shires, [207] 1350

Debate—Supply—Discussion of Estimates—The House having resolved itself into Committee of Supply, for the purpose of considering the Civil Service Estimates, on Motion "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair" an hon. Member offered some remarks having reference to the Army Estimates. Mr. Hunt rose to Order;—the Army Estimates were not to be taken that evening, and he wished to know whether the hon. Member could call attention to them in the manner proposed? Mr. Speaker ruled that the hon. Member was in Order, [205] 307

Debate—Votes in Supply—A Vote in one sum on account of the Civil Service Estimates, embracing seven classes and 150 different items, was resolved in Committee of Supply. On Report of Resolution, Sir Robert Peel asked whether it was competent for any hon. Member then to take each of those 150 items and seven classes separately and discuss them seriatim? Mr. Speaker said the Vote on Account was one Vote, and the right hon. Member might make any observations he thought fit which bore upon it, and which was relevant to the subject-matter, [206] 1368

Debate—Order—Unparliamentary Language—An hon. Member having said that the hon. Member for L. had deliberately based his argument on a false issue; and being called to Order; Mr. Speaker said the expression used by the hon. Member was improper, [205] 1743

"The hon. Member had passed a somewhat impertinent censure——" ["Order"] Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member will, I am sure, recognize that it is quite out of Order to characterize as "impertinent" the conduct of a Member of this House, [206] 1685

Debate—Order—Time for taking notice of disorderly words—Mr. Speaker: I did not hear the exact words used; but the words were not taken notice of by any Member at the moment when they were uttered, the reading of the terms of the Motion have intervened, and it is now too late to call them in question.—Harbours of Refuge, [205] 403

Notices of Motion—What Notice insufficient—Mr. Speaker said: I wish to notice a practice which has lately prevailed of merely putting on the Paper a Notice to the effect that an hon. Member will draw the attention of the House to a certain subject and move a Resolution. Now, this is not enough to fulfil the obligations of Notice. The object of Notice is that Members should know beforehand what is to be the subject of consideration on a particular day . . . .

Notices of Motion—What Notice sufficient —and in order to fulfil the Rules of the House, it is necessary that the terms of a Resolution should be placed on the Paper at least a day before it is intended to be submitted to the House.— Gibraltar—Armament —Motion for a Return, [205] 774; [207] 143

Order—Reference to comments in newspapers on debates in this House. It is out of Order and contrary to the Rules of this House to read extracts from newspapers referring to a debate in this House.—Protection of Life and Property, &c. Bill, [206] 1330

Order—Alteration of Notices of Questions—When Questions are brought to the Table it is sometimes found necessary to revise them, inasmuch as they often contain argumentative matter, and in other ways transgress the Rules of the House. It is desirable, when it is thought necessary to introduce any amendment into them, to communicate, if possible, with the Members who have given notice of them; and if it be found not possible to make such communication, the officers of the House undertook to make such Questions as conformable as possible to the Rules of the House, [206] 468

Mr. Speaker again fully explains the practice, [207] 1881

Order — Lords Amendments — Time for considering—In answer to Mr. M'Laren, Mr. Speaker said that the rule was that the Lords Amendments on Public Bills should be appointed to be considered on a future day, unless the House should order them to be considered forthwith. In the present case it was directed that the Lords Amendments should be considered forthwith.—Bank Holidays Bill, [206] 1118

Order—Meetings of Select Committees—The Select Committee on Business of the House having proposed to meet again on a certain day (without any fixed adjournment), and afterwards the Chairman, with the concurrence of certain of the Members, intimated to the Members that the Committee should meet at an earlier date, question was raised as to the regularity of that proceeding. Mr. Speaker said, it was a rule of the House that when public Notice has once been given of a Motion, the day fixed cannot be altered—at least anticipated. In this case the Chairman was acting to the best of his judgment for the convenience of the Committee, and in accordance with the desire of such Members of the Committee as he had been able to communicate with; there had, moreover, been no fixed adjournment of the Committee. And Mr. Speaker said that there did not appear to him to have been anything contravening the Rules of the House, [205] 688

Privilege — Money Clauses — Intoxicating Liquors Licences Suspension Bill — Lords Amendts. considered. The Lords had inserted an Amendment for suspending Grocers' licences—Question, Whether this was not a violation of the Privileges of this House?—Mr. Speaker was of opinion that it was; and ruled that the Amendment inserted by the Lords interfered with the money clauses of the Bill, and must be struck out, [208] 1736
Privilege — "Men of the Law" — An hon. Member having addressed a Question to Mr. Speaker, on the subject of the alleged disqualification of "men of the law" to sit in this House as Knights of Shires, Mr. Speaker says that it is rather a question of law, which might have been addressed to the Law Officers of the Government, [207] 1346
Questions—Limitation of Questions—An hon. Member having put a Question to the Prime Minister, Whether he did not consider it desirable to prohibit, by express enactment, the exportation of arms, &c. to belligerent states?—Mr. Speaker said, that the hon. Member, in asking the opinion of the Prime Minister upon a point of such great importance, had passed the prescribed rule relating to Questions, [204] 1764
Questions—Questions ought to be restricted to statements of facts.—Army—Volunteers and Hyde Park, [206] 1602 — Loss of the "Megæra," [208] 842
Question—Latitude of Remark in putting a Question—A Member, in putting a Question, is at liberty to state any facts which are necessary for the clear understanding of the Question; but he must not enter into other matters. Nor may an hon. Member, in asking a Question, state his personal opinion.—Army—Campaign Manœuvres in the Autumn, [208] 781, 783

GENERAL INDEX TO SESSION 1872.

EXPLANATION OF THE ABBREVIATIONS.

It being a principal object of this Index, that the proceedings on each Motion shall be completely recorded, some abbreviations of forms were necessary. Those who are accustomed to the proceedings of Parliament will readily fill up the voids. Those who are not so familiar, may find the following explanation useful, but will find the whole formulæ set out at length in the "Contents."

The names which immediately follow the title of a Bill are those of the Peers or hon. Members who have charge of the Bill.

The numbers which are added at stages of Bills are the official numbers of the prints and reprints ordered at each stage, and, with the Statute, will enable the reader to follow all the changes the Bill has undergone.

The entries—Moved, "That the Bill be now read 2ª;" Amendt. "this day six months;" Question put, "That 'now,' &c."—indicate the usual form of raising the issue—namely, "That the word 'now' stand part of the Question."

"The Ballot, Amendt. on Committee of Supply" indicates that the Question was raised by means of an Amendment moved on the Motion (after the Order of the Day for the House to go into Committee of Supply had been read), "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." In this case the issue is formally raised by the Motion "To leave out from the word 'That' to the end of the Question, in order to add" other words. The decision is taken on the Question, "That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question."

The Nos. added to the "Parliamentary Papers" are in most cases those given in the Commons' "List of Papers for Sale."

INDEX

IN THE FOURTH SESSION OF

THE TWENTIETH PARLIAMENT OF THE UNITED KINGDOM.

35° & 36° VICTORIA.

EXPLANATION OF THE ABBREVIATIONS.

In Bills, Read 1°, 2°, 3°, or 1ª, 2ª, 3ª, Read the First, Second, or Third Time.—In Speeches 1R., 2R., 3R., Speech delivered on the First, Second, or Third Reading.—Amendt., Amendment.—Res., Resolution.—Comm., Committee.—Re-Comm., Re-Committal.—Rep., Report.—Consid., Consideration.—Adj., Adjournment or Adjourned.—cl., Clause.—add. cl., Additional Clause.—neg., Negatived.—M. Div., First or Second Division.—l., Lords.—c., Commons.

When in this Index a * is added to the Reading of a Bill, it indicates that no Debate took place upon that stage of the measure.

When in the Text or in the Index a Speech is marked thus *, it indicates that the Speech is reprinted from a Pamphlet or some authorized Report.

When in the Index a † is prefixed to a Name or an Office (the Member having accepted or vacated office during the Session) and to Subjects of Debate thereunder, it indicates that the Speeches on those Subjects were delivered in the speaker's private or official character, as the case may be.

Some subjects of debate have been classified under the following "General Headings:"—ARMY — NAVY — INDIA — IRELAND — SCOTLAND — PARLIAMENT — POOR LAW—POST OFFICE—METROPOLIS — CHURCH OF ENGLAND — EDUCATION — CRIMINAL LAW — LAW AND JUSTICE — TAXATION, under WAYS AND MEANS.

Elementary Education Act

Moved, "That, in the opinion of this House, the provisions of the Elementary Education Act are defective, and its working unsatisfactory; and particularly that it fails to secure the general election of School Boards in towns and rural districts: That it does not render obligatory the attendance of children at school: That it deals in a partial and irregular manner with the remission and payment of school fees by School Boards: That it allows School Boards to pay fees out of rates levied upon the community, to denominational schools, over which the ratepayers have no control: That it permits School Boards to use the money of the ratepayers for the purpose of imparting dogmatic religious instruction in schools established by School Boards: That by the concession of these permissive powers it provokes religious discord throughout the country; and by the exercise of them it violates the rights of conscience" (Mr. Dixon) Mar 5, [209] 1395

Amendt. to leave out from "House," and add "the time which has elapsed since the passing of the Elementary Education Act of 1870, and the progress which has been made in the arrangements under it, are not such as to enable this House to enter with advantage upon a review of its provisions" (Mr. William Edward Forster) v.; after long de-

France—Differential Shipping Duties
Amendt. on Committee of Supply June 4, To leave out from "That," and add "the recent action of the French Government in imposing 'Differential Duties' on merchandise carried in British Ships in the 'Indirect Trade,' is inconsistent with the policy mutually agreed upon between the two Countries in 1866; and that such policy, whilst likely to entail serious injury upon French Trade and Manufactures, is calculated, in the present circumstances of the 'Carrying Trade,' to inflict injury upon British Shipping, and to impair the relations and intercourse between the two Countries, which have grown up under recent commercial arrangements, more especially when it is considered that other European flags are (under Treaties recently made with them) free from the restrictions now imposed upon British Shipping" (Mr. Graves) v. [211] 1760; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after long debate, Amendt. withdrawn

Law and Justice—Welsh County Court Judges

Amendt. on Committee of Supply Mar 8, To leave out from "That," and add "in the opinion of this House, it is desirable, in the interests of the due administration of justice, that the Judge of a County Court District in which the Welsh language is generally spoken should be able to speak and understand that language" (Mr. Osborne Morgan) v. [209] 1648; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after debate, Amendt. withdrawn

Resolved, That, in the opinion of this House, it is desirable, in the interests of the due administration of justice, that the Judge of a County Court District in which the Welsh language is generally spoken should, as far as the limits of selection will allow, be able to speak and understand that language (Mr. Osborne Morgan) Mar 11

Local Taxation—Owners and Occupiers
Moved, "That it is expedient to remedy the injustice of imposing Taxation for National objects on one description of property only, and therefore that no legislation with reference to Local Taxation will be satisfactory which does not provide, either in whole or in part, for the relief of occupiers and owners in counties and boroughs from charges imposed on ratepayers for the administration of justice, police, and lunatics, the expenditure for such purposes being almost entirely independent of local control" (Sir Massey Lopes) April 16, [210] 1331
Amendt. to leave out from the first word "That," and add "while it is desirable to relieve Ratepayers, in whole or in part, from payments for national purposes not under local control, and to abolish, as far as may be practicable, exemptions from liability to rates, it is important, with a view to the progress of legislation for sanitary and other local purposes, that rates for new objects, instead of falling directly on the occupiers of rateable property, should be distributed in England, as in Scotland and Ireland, equitably between the owners and the occupiers" (Sir Thomas Acland) v. ; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after long debate, Question put ; A. 259, N. 159 ; M. 100 ; main Question put, and agreed to

"Any voter may, in compliance with the provisions hereinafter contained, give his vote by a voting paper instead of personally" (Marquess of Bristol); after short debate, on Question? resolved in the negative; Bill passed

Protest thereon

"Dissentient:

"1. Because contests must be greatly increased in number, as no such preliminary meetings can be held before an election as will be any guides to candidates of their chances of success, from the secrecy which will prevent many from declaring their opinions

"2. Because the small number of nominators might greatly increase the number of candidates in a constituency of 2,000 voters (where only one candidate can be elected), so that where two candidates might poll 1,000 votes each, out of 20 candidates polling near 100 each 19 might be defeated and the election carried by a candidate polling a little more than a tenth part of the voters

"3. Because after the balloting the collection of ballot boxes and counting of the papers would make a declaration of the poll a subject of suspense and delay for many days in large constituencies, which would greatly tend to excitement and ill-feeling, and defeat one great object of the Reform Bill of 1832, which was to shorten as much as possible the duration of elections, besides being contrary to the declared intention of the Ballot Bill

"4. Because no provision is made by fine or otherwise for preventing committee rooms being held in public houses, or for closing them during any part of the day of election, both which precautions have been the subjects of many Petitions to both Houses of Parliament Denman."

Patent Office — Case of Mr. Leonard Edmunds

Question, Lord Redesdale; Answer, Earl Granville, Viscount Melville July 30, [213] 107

Moved, "That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to direct the Comptroller and Auditor General of the Exchequer to audit under the provisions of the Exchequer and Audit Departments Act, 1866, the accounts between the Crown and Mr. Leonard Edmunds, late reading clerk at the Table, to whom this House granted a pension on his retirement, of which he has been deprived on charges of malversation, the justice of which charges cannot be rightly determined without such audit, which the House ought therefore in justice to him to obtain; and to which the Judges of the Court of Queen's Bench, to whom Mr. Edmunds lately applied to enforce such audit, while stating that the Acts of Parliament did not enable the Court to grant a mandamus against the Treasury for that purpose, declared unanimously that they considered him morally entitled" (Lord Redesdale) August 9, [213] 831; after short debate, Motion withdrawn

Mr. Speaker announces his intention of retiring from the Chair of the House Feb 7, [209] 90
Mr. Gladstone moves a Vote of Thanks to Mr. Speaker for his distinguished services in the Chair; the Motion, being seconded by Mr. Disraeli, is carried unanimously: and it is resolved, nemine contradicente, that an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty, praying that She will be graciously pleased to confer some signal mark of Her Royal favour upon the Right Hon. Gentleman Feb 8, [209] 150
Mr. Speaker recites the Rules of the House in regard to putting Questions to private Members.—Sir C. Dilke's Speech at Newcastle, [209] 141

SPEAKER, The (Right Hon. H. B. W. BRAND), Cambridgeshire
Mr. Gladstone informs the House that Her Majesty having been informed of the resignation of the Right Hon. John Evelyn Denison, the late Speaker of this House, gives leave to the House to proceed to the choice of a new Speaker
Then Sir Roundell Palmer moves That the Right Honourable Henry Bouverie William Brand do take the Chair of this House as Speaker; the Honourable Peter John Locke King having seconded the Motion, and the House unanimously calling Mr. Brand to the Chair—the right hon. Gentleman places himself, with all humility, at the will of the House; and the House again unanimously calling Mr. Brand, he is conducted to the Chair: then, as Speaker Elect, assures the House that he is very sensible of the high honour just conferred upon him Feb 9, [209] 181
Mr. Speaker Elect presented, and approved Feb 12, 191
Mr. Speaker informs the House that Her Majesty has been pleased to approve the choice of him as Speaker Feb 12, 203

Bills and Amendments—Before a Bill can be withdrawn it is necessary that any Amendment should be withdrawn.—Registration of Borough Voters Bill, [211] 1253; [212] 926
Bills—Amendment on Re-committal—It is open to an hon. Member to move the re-committal of a Bill for the purpose of inserting a clause which the House has struck out.—Public Health Bill, [213] 276
Committees on Private Bills—Instructions—Mr. Chichester Fortescue having moved an Instruction to the Committee on the Metage of Grain (Port of London) Bill, to make a certain provision—Mr. Speaker said, it was unusual to give Instructions of this nature to Committees on Private Bills
Further, this Motion was out of Order for this reason—that the Committee would clearly have the power of making such provisions without any such Instruction; and it is irregular to give an Instruction to a Committee to do that which they already have the power to do, [210] 1262

Debate—The Seconder's right of Speaking—A Member who has seconded a Motion without addressing the House has the right of speaking to the Question.—Civil List—Motion for Returns, [210] 304
Debate—Speaking twice in the same Debate—An hon. Member who has already spoken may, under special circumstances and by the indulgence of the House, ask for explanation on a point raised by a subsequent speaker—if he travels beyond that he will be exceeding the rules of debate
An hon. Member having explained a clause of a Bill may, by the indulgence of the House, give further explanations.—Education (Scotland) Bill, [213] 164, 172
An hon. Gentleman having moved an Amendment and spoken to the Question is not entitled to speak again.—Parliamentary and Municipal Elections Bill, [211] 870; [212] 1118
Debate—Right of Reply—According to the practice of the House it is competent for an hon. Member who has moved the adjournment of the House as an original Motion to reply.—University Tests (Dublin) Bill, [210] 1846
Debate—Time for Speaking—When the Question has been put, and the voices taken, an hon. Member is out of Order in rising to speak.—Religious Disabilities Bill, [210] 1791

Debate—Relevancy of Observations—It is not in Order to raise a discussion not relevant to the subject-matter of the Question before the House, [211] 1555; [213] 39
Or to interpose a disconnected Question during the Orders of the Day, [213] 644, 646
Debate—Latitude of Explanation—On a personal explanation, affecting the conduct not only of Members of this House but of others who have been in the public service, great indulgence ought, under such circumstances, to be shown by the House.—Admiralty Organization—Mr. Reed, [210] 406

A question of such a character ought, perhaps, to be in the form of a distinct Motion, [210] 39 ; [213] 554

Debate—Interruption for the purpose of making Explanation—A Member desirous of making an explanation must wait until the speaker has finished his speech.—Royal Gardens, Kew, [213] 728

Debate—Premature discussion of a Motion—An hon. Member goes beyond the point allowed by the Rules of the House in discussing the merits of a [Bill or Motion] which stands as one of the Orders of the Day, [210] 1815, 1824, 1841 ;—or is on the Paper for To-morrow, [211] 1281 ;—or a Bill which is not before the House, [212] 1430 ;—or by moving an Amendment on another Motion, [209] 1327

Debate—Bills—Irregular discussion of a clause —When the Question before the House is the re-committal of a Bill with regard to certain clauses, it is irregular to discuss a clause not being one of them.—Mines (Coal) Regulation Bill, [212] 1277

Debate—Order — Irregular Interposition of a subject—An hon. Member attempting to introduce a subject irrelevant to any business before the House, Mr. Speaker directed the Clerk to proceed to read the Orders of the Day: and, later, the hon. Member again attempting to interpose the same subject, Mr. Speaker said: "I have by the direction of the House called on the Clerk to read the Orders of the Day, and he is bound by my instructions under the authority of the House to proceed through the Orders of the Day," [213] 644, 646

Debate—Order—Effect of Motion, "That the House do now adjourn" on subsequent debate —Questions having been put by Mr. Corrance, according to Notice, respecting the Treaty of Washington, he concluded by moving the Adjournment of the House. The Questions having been answered by Mr. Gladstone, further Questions thereon were asked by Viscount Bury and Lord H. Scott. Mr. Speaker said—that there was now a Motion before the House, that this House do now adjourn, and therefore it was only by the indulgence of the House that the Prime Minister could speak again. [Cries of "No, no!" and "Withdraw!"] This circumstance marked the inconvenience of the practice of moving the Adjournment of the House on putting Questions. If the hon. Gentleman who moved the Adjournment of the House had confined himself to putting a Question, then the Prime Minister could have answered the Questions now put by the two noble Lords without irregularity, [211] 1741

Debate — Unparliamentary Language — Mr. Speaker: I am sure it was through inadvertence that the hon. Member (Mr. P. J. Smyth) has more than once spoken of Mr. Justice Keogh as Mr. Keogh. I must call on the hon. Member to speak of the Judge as Mr. Justice Keogh, out of respect, if not for the man, at all events for the office.—Judgment of Mr. Justice Keogh, [212] 1809

Debate—Unparliamentary Language—An hon. Member having said that the House were passing a measure at the dictation of the Roman Catholic priesthood, and in the interest of some Members of this House, like the hon. Member for H. who had been detected in the grossest practices of corruption—["Order!"] Mr. Speaker intimated that the hon. Member would see the propriety of withdrawing the expression, [211] 852

Debate—Unparliamentary Language—An hon. Member, in allusion to certain hon. Members, said—"Three peaceful shepherds had already tuned their pipes behind him"—["Order!"] Mr. Speaker said it was not a becoming expression, and the hon. Member would no doubt withdraw it, [212] 1653

Debate — Unparliamentary Language — Mr. Bromley-Davenport having said that he had been advised not to put a Question to the First Commissioner of Works (Mr. Ayrton) "because you will be quite certain to get an offensive reply"—Mr. Speaker said the expression was undoubtedly out of Order, and ought to be withdrawn.—Royal Gardens, Kew, [213] 750

Debate — Unparliamentary Language — Mr. Osborne Morgan said he must protest against the shabby way in which the Bill had been treated by the hon. Baronet opposite :—objected to. Mr. Speaker said, he thought it too strong an expression for one hon. Gentleman to apply to the conduct of another, [212] 222

Debate—Unparliamentary Language—An hon. Member having said, in reference to the Ballot, that the House was afraid to go into the question whether its own corrupt state did not require the same precaution—Mr. Speaker called upon the hon. Member to withdraw what he had just said.—Parliamentary and Municipal Elections Bill, [209] 1206

Debate—Un-Parliamentary Language—During the debate on Sir C. Dilke's Motion respecting the Civil List, notice was taken that "Strangers were present," and Strangers were ordered to withdraw. During the exclusion of Strangers very disorderly proceedings took place :—during which

Mr. Dodson rose to Order. He said he would not ask whether the state of the House and the scene they were witnessing were for the credit and dignity of the House of Commons; he would merely, as a point of Order, ask whether the sounds that proceeded from near the Chair were not un-Parliamentary and disorderly ?

Mr. Speaker said, that the sounds he had heard—and especially those which had proceeded from Members behind the Chair—were, undoubtedly, gross violations of the Order of the House ; and he could not refrain from expressing the pain with which he had witnessed the scene which had just taken place, [210] 307

Opposed Motions—The rule is to this effect—that, except with regard to Money Bills, no Order of the Day or Notice of Motion can be proceeded with after half-past 12 o'clock, if opposed, when notice of opposition has been previously given, [210] 1878

An hon. Member having risen to move for a Select Committee to inquire into matters connected with the Income Tax—Mr. Speaker said, that Notice of an Amendment had been given to the hon. Member's Motion, and it being half-past 12 o'clock, it was not competent for the hon. Member to proceed, [210] 1753

There being an Amendment on the Paper on the second reading of the Court of Chancery (Funds) Bill, the rule of the House was that it could not be proceeded with after half-past 12 o'clock. It was true that the Amendment had been withdrawn; but that circumstance was not provided for by the Resolution of the House, [210] 1977; [212] 302

Order — Irregularity of Proceedings — Mr. Speaker calls attention to some great irregularities that had occurred. Under cover of a Motion for the Adjournment of the House, an hon. Member had called upon the Government for a statement; there had been a discussion on a Bill which the House had determined should be read a second time that day three months; and, further, hon. Members were now adverting to Questions which had been put and answered, and, in so doing, committed the further irregularity of referring to past debates of the current Session, [212] 1136

Order—The proper time for raising a point of Order and appealing to the Chair is the time when the question arises, and not at some future period, [210] 534

Order—The hon. Member for Whitehaven appears to be addressing merely a portion of the House; he must address himself to the Chair, [212] 474

Order—Morning Sittings—Order of Business—The practice of the House has always been that at Morning Sittings the Government business takes precedence over other Bills; but hon. Members are not precluded from putting down their own Bills for the Morning Sittings, and if they are put down, they would come on in regular order, after the Government Bills, [212] 21, 258, 302, 707

Order—Saturday Sittings—Notice—The House is quite at liberty to fix a meeting on Saturday without specific Resolution to that effect —though occasionally the House has thought proper to pass such a Resolution.—Business of the House, [212] 1954

Order—Counting the House—Mr. Speaker explained the Rules of the House with respect to "counting the House." Any hon. Member is entitled to take notice that 40 Members are not present; and the Speaker is bound to act upon that notice, and no discretion is left him in the matter, [210] 534

Order — Proceedings on Money Bills—Mr. Speaker explains the Standing Orders of the House in reference to grants of Public Moneys. Whenever a Bill is introduced by which it is intended to authorize a charge upon the public revenues, it is the practice to print the money clauses in italics—they form no part of the Bill as originally brought in. The Queen's Assent having been given, a Committee of the Whole House considers, on a future day, the Resolution authorizing the charge, [209] 1952

If a Bill which is substantially a Money Bill has not been introduced in accordance with the forms of the House, the Order for its further progress will be discharged, [209] 1485

Order—Substituted Motions—Notice—It depends upon the pleasure of the House, if a Motion be withdrawn, whether another Motion shall be put at once, or not.

A substituted Motion having been moved by leave of the House—objected to—Mr. Speaker said, that the Motion now before the House differed materially from that originally proposed. Of course, it was in the power of the House, if it pleased, to entertain that Motion; but it seemed to him, having regard to the practice of the House, that the present Motion, differing as it did so materially from the original, should not be entertained without Notice.—The Fiji Islands, [212] 218, 219

Order—The House having voted the second reading of a Bill, it is not competent to revive a question which has been decided by the House. — Corrupt Practices Bill, [209] 516

Order—Latitude of discussion—Mr. Bouverie having called attention to the manner in which the Bishops Resignation Act (1869) Perpetuation Bill had been passed; and Mr. Gladstone having given an explanation, Mr. Kinnaird rose to pursue the subject. Mr. Speaker said, that a further discussion on the merits of the Bill itself, or upon the debates in this House regarding it, would be irregular, [212] 107

Order—Matter reflecting on the personal character of a Member.—The proper course to adopt when the conduct of an hon. Member is challenged, would be to propose a direct Motion, in order that full opportunity might be given both for the statement of the case on the one hand, and of the defence on the other, [210] 39; [213] 554

Order of Business—Notices of Motion—Adjournment of the House—The rule is that after Private Business, Petitions and unopposed Motions, have been disposed of, the Notices of Motion should be given: an hon. Member cannot take opportunity of that stage to move the Adjournment of the House, [212] 698

Privilege — "The Speaker's List." Mr. G. Bentinck having called attention to an article in The Morning Advertiser purporting to give an account of an arrangement between the Ministerial and Opposition "Whips" as to the Members who should be permitted to speak on any given Question, which list (known as "The Speaker's List") is handed to the Speaker with strict injunctions that no Member is to speak whose name is not upon it; and other pretended particulars—and asking whether the grave charges contained in the article do not involve a breach of the Privileges of this House: Mr. Speaker said, it appears to him that it is a matter which in no way affects the Privileges of the House; and declared it to be the Rule and Order of the House that the Member who first catches the Speaker's eye is entitled to be heard: and Mr. Speaker says that, for his own part, he has never seen a so-called "Speaker's List." Mr. Gladstone declares for himself and Mr. Glyn that neither is cognizant of such a practice, [209] 1034

Privilege—The Oath of Allegiance—Sir Charles Dilke rose to move that there be laid before the House certain Returns relating to the Civil List; Viscount Bury rose, on a point of Privilege, and read the Oath to be taken by every Member of the House; and, referring to a declaration made by the hon. Member for Chelsea that "he would make no concealment of the fact that he was a Republican," asked whether, if the hon. Baronet did not explain and repudiate that statement he would not have been guilty of an infringement of the solemn declaration taken at the Table of the House? Mr. Speaker said, he apprehended it was no part of his duty to say what is consistent or what is not consistent with the Oath of Allegiance. Looking at the terms of the Motion of the hon. Member for Chelsea, he saw in them no violation of the Rules of this House.—Civil List, [210] 252

Questions — Alteration of Questions by the Clerks—The Clerks at the Table will, under Mr. Speaker's authority, alter Notices of Questions the terms of which are against the Rules of the House, [212] 700

Questions and Answers—An hon. Member is only entitled to state what is absolutely necessary to explain his Question.—Foreign Office —Translation of Foreign Documents, [210] 1088

A Member is out of Order in employing arguments, and must confine himself to stating facts bearing on the Question which he desires to put, [209] 868; [210] 1267

Questions and Answers—Limitation of Questions—Mr. Serjeant Simon having put a Question of unusual length and containing the recital of a large number of details which might or might not be accurate—Sir John Pakington inquired if the Question was in Order? Mr. Speaker said that the Question cannot be held to be out of Order; but, at the same time, intimated that the subject might—perhaps more properly—be made the subject of a Notice of Motion.—Spain—Seizure and Detention of "The Lark," [211] 606

Questions and Answers—Limitation of Answers —Business of the House, [209] 215

No doubt it is not in Order in putting a Question or making an Answer, to refer to former debates; but in the present instance, in order to make his Answer clear to the House, it was almost incumbent on the Secretary for War to advert to what had passed on a former occasion, [210] 251

Questions and Answers—Limitation of Answers —A Question covering a great deal of ground, the Minister in his Answer necessarily covers a great deal of ground also.—Education, School Boards, [209] 466; [210] 153

Questions and Answers—Limitation of Answers —The Home Secretary, in answering a Question respecting the conduct of the police in a certain case, proceeded to state the report of the magistrate who had conducted the inquiry —Mr. Osborne asked whether the reading of these enormous documents was in Order? Mr. Speaker said, it might be questioned whether the Question was in Order; but it having been put to the Minister he could not answer it without entering into details, [210] 596

Questions and Answers—An hon. Member who has put a Question, is in Order in asking a further Question arising out of the Answer; but may not enter into a discussion, [212] 1624, 298; [211] 1994

Questions—The Metropolitan Board of Works —Lord Eustace Cecil having addressed a Question to the hon. Member for Truro, Chairman of the Metropolitan Board of Works, respecting Leicester Square, Mr. Bowring asked whether such a Question was in accordance with the Rules of the House? Mr. Speaker said, that according to the strict Rules of the House such Questions are out of Order, inasmuch as they do not relate to any Bill, Motion, or other subject-matter connected with the Business of the House; but it has been for many years the practice to allow Questions of public interest relating to the government of the Metropolis to be addressed to Members of the Metropolitan Board of Works, being Members of this House: and this Question being of public interest, Mr. Speaker thought he should not do right to interpose to prevent the noble Lord from asking it, [209] 1953

GENERAL INDEX TO SESSION 1873.

EXPLANATION OF THE ABBREVIATIONS.

It being a principal object of this Index, that the proceedings on each Motion shall be completely recorded, some abbreviations of forms were necessary. Those who are accustomed to the proceedings of Parliament will readily fill up the voids. Those who are not so familiar, may find the following explanation useful, but will find the whole formulæ set out at length in the "Contents."

The names which immediately follow the title of a Bill are those of the Peers or hon. Members who have charge of the Bill.

The numbers which are added at stages of Bills are the official numbers of the prints and reprints ordered at each stage, and, with the Statute, will enable the reader to follow all the changes the Bill has undergone.

The entries—Moved, "That the Bill be now read 2ª;" Amendt. "this day six months;" Question put, "That 'now,' &c."—indicate the usual form of raising the issue—namely, "That the word 'now' stand part of the Question."

"The Ballot, Amendt. on Committee of Supply" indicates that the Question was raised by means of an Amendment moved on the Motion (after the Order of the Day for the House to go into Committee of Supply had been read), "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." In this case the issue is formally raised by the Motion "To leave out from the word 'That' to the end of the Question, in order to add" other words. The decision is taken on the Question, "That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question."

The Nos. added to the "Parliamentary Papers" are in most cases those given in the Commons' "List of Papers for Sale."

INDEX

HANSARD'S PARLIAMENTARY DEBATES,

IN THE FIFTH SESSION OF

THE TWENTIETH PARLIAMENT OF THE UNITED KINGDOM.

36° & 37° VICTORIA.

EXPLANATION OF THE ABBREVIATIONS.

In Bills, Read 1°, 2°, 3°, or 1ª, 2ª, 3ª, Read the First, Second, or Third Time.—In Speeches, 1R., 2R., 3R., Speech delivered on the First, Second, or Third Reading.—Amendt., Amendment.—Res., Resolution.—Comm., Committee.—Re-Comm., Re-Committal.—Rep., Report.—Consid., Consideration.—Adj., Adjournment or Adjourned.—cl., Clause.—add. cl., Additional Clause.—neg., Negatived.—M. Div., First or Second Division.—l., Lords.—c., Commons.

When in this Index a * is added to the Reading of a Bill, it indicates that no Debate took place upon that stage of the measure.

When in the Text or in the Index a Speech is marked thus *, it indicates that the Speech is reprinted from a Pamphlet or some authorized Report.

When in the Index a † is prefixed to a Name or an Office (the Member having accepted or vacated office during the Session) and to Subjects of Debate thereunder, it indicates that the Speeches on those Subjects were delivered in the speaker's private or official character, as the case may be.

Some subjects of debate have been classified under the following "General Headings:"—ARMY — NAVY — INDIA — IRELAND — SCOTLAND — PARLIAMENT — POOR LAW — POST OFFICE — METROPOLIS — CHURCH OF ENGLAND — EDUCATION — CRIMINAL LAW — LAW AND JUSTICE — TAXATION, under WAYS AND MEANS.

Ireland—The Irish Civil Servants

Amendt. on Committee of Supply July 4, To leave out from "That," and add "the 'Civil Service (in Ireland) Commissioners' having reported that the dissatisfaction on the ground of 'the general inadequacy of the present scale of salaries, having regard to the great increase which has taken place in latter years in the cost of living,' is well founded; and that 'there is no reason, based on local considerations, for giving salaries to Civil Servants stationed in Dublin less in amount than those assigned to persons in London performing analogous duties,' this House is of opinion that such general inadequacy of the present scale of salaries of the Civil Servants serving in Ireland should as soon as possible be redressed, and that they should be placed upon an equality as to remuneration with those performing duties in England corresponding in difficulty and responsibility" (Mr. Plunket) v., [216] 1805; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after debate, Question put; A. 117, N. 130; M. 13; words added; main Question, as amended, put, and agreed to Amendt. on Committee of Supply Mar 7, to leave out from "That," and add "the evils brought upon a large portion of Ireland by the periodical floods of the Shannon and her tributaries are attributable to the state of the navigation works, and to the neglect of the recommendations of the Commissioners appointed under the Act 5 and 6 Will. 4, c. 67; and that the navigation works, which are the property of the Government, and under their exclusive control, are far behind the present state of engineering science, and admit of great improvement at a comparatively moderate cost; and that it is reasonable and right that, whilst amply maintaining the means of public navigation, measures should be forthwith adopted to relieve a district of many hundreds of miles of the vast and unnecessary suffering inflicted upon it by the useless impounding of the waters of the River Shannon" (Mr. Mitchell Henry) v., 1569; Question proposed, "That the words, &c.;" after debate, Amendt. withdrawn

Scotland, Church of — Patronage
Moved to resolve, that whereas the presentation of ministers to churches in Scotland by patrons under the existing law and practice has been the cause of much division among the people and in the Church of Scotland, it is expedient that Her Majesty's Government should take the whole subject into consideration with the view of legislating as to the appointment and settlement of ministers in the Church of Scotland (The Earl of Airlie) June 17, [216] 1032 ; after long debate, Motion withdrawn

Scotland—Church Rates
Question, Mr. M'Laren ; Answer, The Lord Advocate May 19, [216] 102
Moved, "That the levying of local rates and assessments on lands and houses for the erection and repair of Churches and Manses in Scotland, for the supposed benefit of a minority of the population, is unjust in principle, and the cause of great dissatisfaction amongst the people ; and looking to the hopes held out by the Government on the subject, this House is of opinion that a Bill should be introduced by the Government during the present Session of Parliament, to remove the existing grievance" (Mr. M'Laren) June 27, [216] 1522 [House counted out]

SPEAKER, The (Right Hon. H. B. W. BRAND), Cambridgeshire

Amendments — No second Amendment until first disposed of—Mr. Speaker said that there was an Amendment before the House —that the Bill [Labourers Cottages (Scotland) Bill] should be read a second time that day six months—and until that Amendment was disposed of, no other Amendment could be moved, [217] 465

Bills—Money Clauses—Rating (Liability and Value) Bill—Order for Consideration, as amended, read. Mr. Craufurd said he understood that the President of the Local Government Board was about to import into the Bill certain clauses [which he referred to] —Mr. Speaker said, that if the clauses to be proposed by the right hon. Gentleman imposed any new charge they must be moved in Committee of the Whole House, [217] 402, 403

Amendments varying the incidence of a rate come within the rule, and the Bill must be re-committed with respect to the clauses affected, 413

Bills — Delay in circulating a Bill after Leave given—In answer to Colonel Stuart Knox, who complained that copies of a certain Bill had not yet been distributed—Mr. Speaker said, that leave was given by the House for the introduction of the [Borough Franchise (Ireland)] Bill upwards of six weeks ago, and that on the same occasion the Bill was ordered to be printed. No doubt it was opposed to the usage of the House that so great a delay should take place between the Order of the House for the printing of the Bill and the circulation of the Bill among hon. Members, [216] 276

Bills—Alteration in Bills after Leave given—An hon. Member who has obtained the leave of the House to introduce a Bill is at liberty to suspend the introduction of that Bill and to alter it in any way he thinks proper, provided it is not so altered as to be inconsistent with his original Leave.—University Tests (Dublin) Bill, [215] 303, 304, 305, 306

Bills—Alteration in Bills actually before the House—There is no principle more clearly laid down in this House than this—When a Member has introduced a Bill to the House it ceases to be in that Member's hand, and passes into the possession of the House. No essential alteration of that Bill, at any stage, may then be made without the distinct order of the House. The House has laid down a clear course for Members to take if they desire to make any essential alteration in a Bill of which they have charge at any stage.

That course is to ask the Leave of the House to withdraw the Bill and to present another instead thereof

Under such circumstances, no Notice on the part of the hon. Member in charge of the Bill is necessary in order to raise the Question whether he should or should not be permitted to present another Bill, [215] 303

Bills—Notice of Postponement—If an hon. Member be desirous of postponing a Bill of which he has charge, it is the ordinary practice to allow him to move its postponement without Notice, [214] 194

Debate—Effect of agreeing to Motion "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." The House having already declared that the words "That I do now leave the Chair" stand part of the Question, the hon. Member's Amendment cannot now be moved : therefore it is only open to him to call the attention of the House to the circumstances he has brought forward.—Supply — Administration of the Police, [215] 994, 1739

Debate—Effect of moving the Adjournment of the Debate—Right of Speaking a second time—A Member who has moved "That the Debate be now adjourned" is not entitled to address the House a second time in withdrawing that Motion.—Register for Parliamentary Electors, &c. Bill, [215] 719

East India Revenue Accounts—Committee, Moved, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." Mr. Fawcett moved, "That the Debate be now adjourned." On representation made, Mr. Fawcett asked whether he should lose the right of speaking on the Main Question if he made one or two observations to explain why he moved the Adjournment of the Debate ? Mr. Speaker said the hon. Gentleman was entitled to speak on the Motion he had made for the Adjournment of the Debate ; but he could not speak again on the Main Question

If the House allowed him to withdraw his Motion, he might then speak on the Main Question, [217] 1405

Debate—Effect of Motion, "That this House do now adjourn"—Mr. Gladstone having moved "That this House do now adjourn." Mr. Dillwyn proposed to move that the Salmon Fisheries Bill be committed pro formâ. Mr. Speaker said, the Question before the House is "That the House do now adjourn." The hon. Member cannot interpose with his Motion.—Resignation of Ministers, [214] 1912

Debate—No debate when no Motion before the House—Statements having been made to the House as to the proceedings pending the Resignation of Ministers, hon. Members desired to address the House—Mr. Speaker said there was at present no Motion before the House. The House had just heard the Ministerial Explanations ; but it would be irregular to continue the discussion without some Motion before the House ; therefore, according to the usual practice, it would now be his duty to proceed with the Notices of Motion, [214] 1945

Debate — Sufficient Notice and Motion — Mr. Secretary Bruce having laid upon the Table a Copy of the Substituted Rules under the Parks Regulation Act, proposed to state the substance of those Rules—Mr. Osborne rose to Order, and asked whether it was open to the right hon. Gentleman to enter on the subject, seeing that there was no Notice on the Paper with respect to it? Mr. Speaker said, the right hon. Gentleman had stated in his place that he intended to lay on the Table the new Rules with reference to the regulation of the Parks; and, in pursuance of that Notice, he was now about to move that those Rules do lie upon the Table. The proceeding was quite regular

It was then asked whether, as the statement was likely to lead to a debate, the right hon. Gentleman intended to conclude with a Motion? Mr. Bruce said, that all he desired to do was to state the substance of the New Rules. It was objected that, in that case, he was not entitled to make any statement whatever. Mr. Speaker said, the right hon. Gentleman must necessarily conclude by moving "That these Rules do now lie upon the Table;" and upon that Motion a debate might arise, [214] 200

Debate—Premature reference to a subject—It is irregular to anticipate under cover of a Question, the discussion of a Motion which is set down for future consideration, [216] 962; [217] 358, 576, 577

Debate—Reference to a Debate in the present Session—Latitude in Observation—An hon. Member is out of Order in referring to what had occurred in a Debate in the present Session; but it was usual, in cases like the present, where personal explanations became necessary, to grant considerable latitude

Whatever the explanation required, the hon. Member to whom reference was made ought to be in his place.—Conventual and Monastic Institutions Bill, [216] 1783

Debate—Reference to a subject now before a Court of Law—Mr. Whalley, in moving for Papers connected with "The Tichborne Case," proposed to make comments upon the case itself. Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Gentleman is certainly out of Order in discussing proceedings that are at this time sub judice.—The Queen v. Castro, [216] 960, 961

Debate—Relevancy of Debate—Mr. Speaker reminded the hon. and learned Member that the Motion before the House was that the Order for the Second Reading of the [Landlord and Tenant] Bill be discharged. To go into the merits of the Bill upon such a Question would be quite out of Order, [216] 1648

Debate — Relevancy of Debate — Question, "That this Bill, as amended, be considered on Thursday next"—On this Motion no Amendment can be moved, except as to the time at which the Consideration of the Bill should be taken; and therefore any discussion not relevant to an Amendment of that kind is out of place, [217] 358

Debate — Resumption of a Debate adjourned by the Six o'clock Rule—According to the Standing Orders of the House, the debate stood adjourned till To-morrow, when it would rest with the hon. Member for Sheffield to propose a day when it should be continued.—Factory Acts Amendment Bill, [216] 828

Debate—Unparliamentary Language—It is not Parliamentary language to speak of any body of men in this House as otherwise than a body of independent Members, [216] 1678

Opposed Business—The House having agreed to the Resolution that Opposed Business shall not be taken after 12.30 at night, and immediately thereafter the Order of the Day for the Second Reading of a Bill being read (it being then past 12.30 a.m.), Mr. Melly asked Mr. Speaker if it was consistent with the Resolution to proceed with this Bill on which various Amendments were to be proposed? Mr. Speaker was of opinion that the Resolution ought not to apply to Orders of the Day standing on the Paper before the Resolution was adopted by the House. The House ought to have full knowledge of the passing of the Resolution before it was enforced, [214] 1364

Opposed Business—Money Bills—Mr. Fawcett having asked whether the East India Loan Bill, being a Money Bill for India, was exempted from the Rule that Opposed Business should not be taken after half-past Twelve o'clock? Mr. Speaker said that the Bill was undoubtedly a Money Bill, and as such exempted from the Rule, [215] 1109

Order—When a subject is already before the House—Mr. Auberon Herbert having given Notice "To call attention to the Criminal Law Amendment Act of 1871," and notice being taken that there was already before the House a Bill to repeal that Act, which stood for consideration to-morrow — Mr. Speaker said there could be no doubt that the hon. Member for Nottingham would be out of Order in moving his Resolution that evening, seeing that the matter was already before the House, [217] 38

Order—Where a matter is already decided—The House having by a previous vote refused to entertain the proposal that the mode of conducting the Business of the House be referred to a Select Committee, it is out of Order to propose now, by another Amendment, that such a course should be taken.—Business of the House—Resolution, [214] 287

Order — Nomination of Committees — Peace Preservation (Ireland) Bill. Order for Committee read. Mr. Pim said he would move that the Order for Committee be discharged, and that the Bill be referred to a Select Committee, consisting of the Marquess of Hartington and Mr. Secretary Bruce, together with all Members who represented Irish constituencies—Mr. Speaker said the hon. Member might move to refer the Bill to a Select Committee, but the nomination of that Committee must be made the subject of a separate Motion, [216] 509

Order—Precedence of Government Orders of the Day — The House having ordered (July 28) "That on Wednesday next, and every succeeding Wednesday, Government Orders of the Day have precedence." On the next Wednesday (July 30), Mr. Collins rose to a point of Order—A Bill, of which he had charge, had been placed No. 21 on the Paper, while the Bill of the hon. Member for Sheffield had been placed No. 4—and he desired to ask Mr. Speaker whether that precedence was in accordance with the Resolution? Mr. Speaker said that the proper construction of the Order was, that the Government had not only power to place their own Orders, but those of private Members, according to their pleasure, and that therefore the Bill of the hon. Member for Sheffield properly had precedence that day, [217] 1256

Order—Rules of Debate—Mr. Melly, having read an extract from a speech of the hon. Member for Derby (Mr. Plimsoll), made out of this House, reflecting on the conduct of officers of the Board of Trade, asked the President of the Board whether his attention had been called to that speech, and whether such statement is correct? Objection being made, Mr. Speaker said that he saw nothing irregular in putting a Question calling the attention of the President of the Board of Trade to the statement made out of the House. But that Question being followed by another, "and whether such statement is correct?" Mr. Speaker said that if the hon. Member questioned the statement made by a Member of the House, that proceeding would be irregular; but he did not understand that to be so—the hon. Member for Stoke only inquired of the President of the Board of Trade, whether the conduct of the officers of the Board of Trade was such as described by the hon. Member for Derby.—Mercantile Marine—Loss of the "Sea Queen," [215] 105

Order — Withdrawal of Amendment — The Votes and Journals—Question arising, Mr. Hodgson said that an high authority had stated a few days ago that an Amendment moved by any hon. Member must be withdrawn by that hon. Member himself. He certainly never withdrew his Amendment, and therefore trusted it might be considered as still standing for approval. Mr. Speaker said that the hon. Member was understood to have withdrawn his Amendment; and the Amendment having appeared on the Proceedings of the House as being withdrawn, it must be taken to be so.—Railway and Canal Traffic Bill, [216] 1299

Privilege—Money Bills—Mr. Speaker pointed out that a Private Bill (Bradford Improvement Bill) which had come down from the House of Lords contained clauses which imposed a tax upon the people, and should therefore have been introduced into this House, and not into the other House of Parliament: But Mr. Speaker said that as the Promoters were not responsible for the introduction of the Bill into the other House, and had signified their intention to withdraw those clauses, he thought this course would sufficiently repair the irregularity. After some observations, the Bill was read the second time, [215] 1676

Questions—Alteration of Questions by the Clerks at the Table—One of the established Rules of the House with reference to Questions is that no argumentative matter shall be introduced; and if such matter appears it is always struck out by Mr. Speaker's authority, [217] 37, 803

Questions—Latitude of Observations in putting a Question—Mr. Whalley, in putting a Question having reference to the expenses in the trial of "The Tichborne Case," proposed to offer some remarks. Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Gentleman was out of Order in going into the merits of the case. If the hon. Gentleman would confine himself to the expenses incurred in consequence of the prosecution of this person he would be quite in Order.—The Queen v. Castro, [214] 1611; [215] 644; [216] 409

Questions—Latitude in Answering—Mr. Plimsoll having put a Question to the President of the Board of Trade relating to the conduct of officers of the Board:—Mr. Chichester Fortescue made an explanatory Answer at some length. Sir John Hay rose to Order. Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Member for Derby has asked a Question having reference to the conduct of the officers of the Board of Trade;—Undoubtedly the House will be of opinion that the President of the Board of Trade, in answering a Question of this kind, is entitled to considerable indulgence. — Merchant Shipping Act — The "Eleanor," [215] 641

Questions—Limitation of Answer—Mr. Bruen having asked Mr. M'Mahon what course he intends to pursue with regard to the Union Rating (Ireland) Bill, and the latter proposing to answer at some length — Mr. Speaker said he must remind the hon. Member that he was quite out of Order in explaining the provisions of his Bill on the Question now put to him, [216] 1711

Standing Order, 24th July, 1860—Mail Packet Contracts—The Standing Order [of the 24th July, 1860] is very clear and explicit. It lays down the Rule that every Packet and Telegraphic Contract shall be laid upon the Table of the House, accompanied by a Minute of the Lords of the Treasury setting forth the grounds on which they have proceeded to authorize it. Now the Contract in question has, no doubt, been laid on the Table of the House, accompanied by a letter from an officer of the Treasury to the Postmaster General; but such a letter in no sense fulfils the requirement of the Standing Order, and therefore, in my judgment, that Contract is not in a condition to be considered in its present shape by the House.—Cape of Good Hope and Zanzibar Mail Contract, [216] 1001

GENERAL INDEX TO SESSION 1874.

EXPLANATION OF THE ABBREVIATIONS.

It being a principal object of this Index, that the proceedings on each Motion shall be completely recorded, some abbreviations of forms were necessary. Those who are accustomed to the proceedings of Parliament will readily fill up the voids. Those who are not so familiar, may find the following explanation useful, but will find the whole formulæ set out at length in the "Contents."

The names which immediately follow the title of a Bill are those of the Peers or hon. Members who have charge of the Bill.

The numbers which are added at stages of Bills are the official numbers of the prints and reprints ordered at each stage, and, with the Statute, will enable the reader to follow all the changes the Bill has undergone.

The entries—Moved, "That the Bill be now read 2ª;" Amendt. "this day six months;" Question put, "That 'now,' &c."—indicate the usual form of raising the issue—namely, "That the word 'now' stand part of the Question."

"The Ballot, Amendt. on Committee of Supply' indicates that the Question was raised by means of an Amendment moved on the Motion (after the Order of the Day for the House to go into Committee of Supply had been read), "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." In this case the issue is formally raised by the Motion "To leave out from the word 'That' to the end of the Question, in order to add" other words. The decision is taken on the Question, "That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question."

The Nos. added to the "Parliamentary Papers" are in most cases those given in the Commons' "List of Papers for Sale."

Div.*, First or Second Division.—l., Lords.—c., Commons.

When in this Index a * is added to the Reading of a Bill, it indicates that no Debate took place upon that stage of the measure.

When in the Text or in the Index a Speech is marked thus *, it indicates that the Speech is reprinted from a Pamphlet or some authorized Report.

When in the Index a † is prefixed to a Name or an Office (the Member having accepted or vacated office during the Session) and to Subjects of Debate thereunder, it indicates that the Speeches on those Subjects were delivered in the speaker's private or official character, as the case may be.

Some subjects of debate have been classified under the following "General Headings:"—ARMY — NAVY — INDIA — IRELAND — SCOTLAND — PARLIAMENT — POOR LAW—POST OFFICE—METROPOLIS — CHURCH OF ENGLAND — EDUCATION — CRIMINAL LAW — LAW AND JUSTICE — TAXATION, under WAYS AND MEANS.

Fiji Islands—Annexation
Moved, "That this House is gratified to learn that Her Majesty's Government have yielded to the unanimous request of the Chiefs, Native population, and White residents of Fiji, for annexation to this Country, so far as to direct Sir Hercules Robinson to proceed to those Islands, with the view to the accomplishment of that object" (Mr. William M'Arthur) August 4, [221] 1264
Amendt. to leave out from "That," and add "this House considers that, having regard to the existence in the case of Fiji of difficulties caused by the necessity of 'subjugating and removing' 20,000 ferocious mountaineers, and by the fact that domestic slavery is pronounced by Commodore Goodenough and Consul Layard, in their official Report, to be 'the foundation of social order' in Fiji, it is necessary that great caution should be used in approaching the subject of annexation" (Sir Charles W. Dilke) v. ; Question proposed, "That the words, &c. ;" after debate, Question put ; A. 81, N. 28 ; M. 53 ; main Question put, and negatived

Sligo, Leitrim, and Northern Counties Railway Bill
Moved to resolve, That whereas the Committee to which the Sligo, Leitrim, and Northern Counties Railway Bill was referred, have, in the absence of any Standing Order on the subject, not felt themselves bound to inquire into the nature and extent of the opposition to the guarantee clauses; and whereas the practice of Parliament for twenty-five years has been to sanction such guarantees in cases where they have been shown to be the general wish of the counties interested, it is expedient that the said Bill be re-committed with a view to further inquiry into the nature and extent of the opposition to the guarantee (The Earl of Bandon) May 15, [219] 306; after short debate, Motion withdrawn
Then it was moved that the said Bill be re-committed to the same Select Committee; on Question? Cont. 59, Not-Cont. 54; M. 5; resolved in the affirmative; Bill re-committed accordingly

Meeting of the Parliament—The Right Hon. Henry Brand unanimously called to the Chair as Speaker of the House Mar 5, [218] 5; is presented and approved Mar 6, 15; reports Her Majesty's approval, and first takes and subscribes the Oath Mar 6

Mr. Speaker acquaints the House that he has received a Letter from Major General Sir Garnet J. Wolseley acknowledging the Thanks of the House to himself and other Officers of the Expedition to Ashantee. Letter read, [218] 495

Parliament—Issue of New Writs—Mr. Speaker states the Resolution and practice of the House in regard to the Issue of New Writs, [218] 1844, 1262

Amendment — Order for Committee read — Question proposed, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." Mr. W. Shaw rose to propose an Amendment to refer the Bill to a Select Committee. Mr. Speaker said that the hon. Member could not propose his Amendment, although he was entitled to speak on the Motion that he (Mr. Speaker) leave the Chair. — Factories (Health of Women, &c.) Bill, [220] 309

Amendments—Order—A Motion and Amendment thereon being before the House, the Amendment must be withdrawn before another Amendment can be discussed.—West African Settlements, [218] 1663

Bills—Hybrid or Private Bill—Mr. Fawcett wished to ask whether, as this Bill (the Great Southern of India and Carnatic Railway Companies Bill) would throw a charge upon the revenues of India, it was competent to pass it as a Private Bill, or whether it ought not to be put in the form of a Hybrid Bill or a Public Bill? Mr. Speaker said, it was perfectly in Order to deal with the measure as a Private Bill, [219] 849

Debate—Explanation—Mr. Ward having attributed certain expressions to Lord E. Fitzmaurice, the latter explained. Mr. Ward said he accepted the noble Lord's explanation, but had no hesitation in saying that, to his mind, the words were used by him. Mr. Speaker reminded the hon. Gentleman that he had accepted the noble Lord's explanation, and could not, therefore, repeat the assertion.—Endowed Schools Acts Amendment Bill, [221] 416

Debate—Premature discussion of details—Intoxicating Liquors Bill. Order for Committee read; Motion, "That Mr. Speaker, &c." Discussion arising, it was asked whether an Amendment of a certain character was before the House. Mr. Speaker said, no clause of the Bill could be discussed in detail at its present stage, [219] 1000

Debate—Premature discussion of a subject—If the House should order a Bill relating to a certain subject to be read a second time on a given day, it will not anticipate the discussion on the matter which it has so ordered by a Motion on the same subject. Therefore, if the hon. Member (Mr. Newdegate) postpones the second reading of the Bill to a later day than the Resolution of which he has given notice, that Resolution could not be proceeded with, [219] 1054

Debate—Premature discussion of a subject—Mr. Speaker said, it was quite irregular, even if the hon. Member proposed to conclude with a Motion, to introduce a subject which stood on the Orders of the House for another day.—Parliament—The late Count-out, [219] 1002

Debate—Irregular discussion of a Bill—To discuss the provisions of a Bill on the Question for going into Committee of Supply is irregular.—Colonial Office—The Official Staff, [221] 795

Debate — Interruptions — Relevancy of Argument—Mr. Newdegate, in debate on Monastic and Conventual Institutions, referred to the case of Miss Talbot. Sir George Bowyer rose to Order. The hon. Member for North Warwickshire was going into transactions which he was misrepresenting. Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Member for North Warwickshire was not out of Order: The matter to which he was referring was relevant to the Motion, [219] 1508

Debate—Relevancy of argument—Sir George Bowyer rose to Order. The hon. Gentleman (Mr. Seely) appeared to be discussing a Bill which was not now before the House. Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Gentleman's observations were quite relevant. The hon. Gentleman was calling on the Government to introduce a Bill and was discussing other measures that related to the question he now brought forward. — Security for Improvements by Agricultural Tenants, [220] 191, 928

Debate—Right of Reply—Mr. Plimsoll having moved that the Merchant Shipping Survey Bill, which stood upon the Orders of the Day for Second Reading, be now read the second time, and a debate ensuing, rose to reply. Mr. Speaker said, he must remind the hon. Gentleman that he could only speak if he wished to make any explanation to the House as to the course he proposed to take with respect to his Motion.—Merchant Shipping Survey Bill, [220] 381 ; Spirituous Liquors (Scotland) Bill, [219] 584

Order— Reply—Mr. Hunt having presented Supplementary Navy Estimates, on a subsequent day, on Order for Committee, Sir John Hay moved an Amendment on Question "That Mr. Speaker, &c." Mr. Hunt replied ; objected to :—Mr. Speaker said, that the Supplementary Estimates having been challenged, the right hon. Gentleman was justified in making a general statement in reply ; but the discussion of the details was a matter for the consideration of the Committee of Supply, [218] 1869

Debate—Speaking a second time—Committee of Supply. Moved "That Mr. Speaker, &c." Mr. Newdegate moved an Amendment to leave out after "That" and insert certain other words ; after debate, Question put, and negatived : Question proposed, "That those words be there added." Debate thereon. Mr. Newdegate rose to address the House. Mr. Speaker informed the hon. Member that having made his Motion he could not speak again until [a suggested] Amendment was moved.—Monastic and Conventual Institutions, [221] 833

Debate—Speaking a second time—Supply Motion, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." An Amendment moved : Mr. Bentinck addressed the House : Amendment withdrawn. Another Amendment moved : Mr. Bentinck rose : objected to—the hon. Member had already addressed the House on Question, "That Mr. Speaker, &c." Mr. Speaker said, that the Question now before the House was different from that on which the hon. Member for West Norfolk had previously spoken, and therefore he was at liberty to speak on the present Question, [218] 1883

Debate—Order—Addition to a Resolution—Motion made ; Amendment proposed—Question, "That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question," put, and agreed to : An Amendment proposed to add certain words—Mr. Speaker said, that the House having decided "That the words, &c." should stand part of the Question, it was quite open to any hon. Member to propose the addition of words to the Resolution.—Parliament—Business of the House, [218] 286

Debate—Order—An hon. Member rising to comment upon an Amendment before it has been seconded is out of order.—Parliament—Business of the House, [218] 277

Debate — Order—Petition—Mr. Whalley, in moving the appointment of a Select Committee to inquire into his imprisonment for contempt of Court, referred to the words of a Petition :—Mr. Denison rose to Order—The hon. and learned Gentleman having on the previous day expressed his desire to withdraw that Petition, it was not now open to him to comment upon it. Mr. Speaker said, the Petition was duly presented to the House, and was ordered to lie upon the Table in the usual manner. The document having once been laid upon the Table of the House, could not be withdrawn without the formal sanction of the House. The hon. and learned Member was therefore quite in Order in referring to it, [219] 203

Debate — Order — Reference to a previous Debate—An hon. Member is not in Order in alluding to a former debate of the present Session. — Municipal Privileges (Ireland) Bill, [218] 951

Debate — Unparliamentary Language — Mr. Conolly having said that "without doubt he (Mr. Butt) and those with him would shrink from nothing, however illegal or unconstitutional"—Mr. Butt : I rise to Order. I move that the hon. Member's words be taken down. Mr. Conolly said, he withdrew the words with great pleasure. Mr. Speaker :

It being moved that the words be taken down, let them be taken down accordingly. Mr. Conolly apologized, and withdrew the words. — Public Meetings (Ireland) Bill, [219] 589

Debate—Unparliamentary Language—An hon. Member having said that "at last he had got at the truth; but it had taken a long time to extract it—not from any intention of the right hon. Gentleman (Mr. Goschen) to mislead the House, but owing to the tendency of official habits." Mr. Goschen remonstrated. Mr. Speaker said, he thought the hon. Member was about to qualify his statement, and he trusted he would withdraw it.—Navy—Supplementary Estimates, [218] 1875

Debate—Unparliamentary Language—Sir John Gray spoke of "a course which I hold to be unworthy of a Minister of Victoria, unworthy to be listened to by any man of honour in this House." Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Member was exceeding the licence of debate. —India — The Nawab Nazim of Bengal, [220] 583

Debate—Unparliamentary Language—An hon. Member having said that if the Irish railways were delivered over to the English Government, the Irish officers would be told to go to America with a vengeance—or to "Hell or Connaught"—Mr. Speaker said, he must remind the hon. Member that his language exceeded the licence of Parliamentary debate. —Acquisition and Control of Irish Railways, [218] 1331

Opposed Business — A reference to a Select Committee could not, unless Notice of Opposition was given, be considered Opposed Business within the meaning of the Resolution of the House. — Shannon Navigation Bill, [220] 674

Order—Public Worship Regulation Bill, as amended, considered. Mr. Hubbard commented on the rejection of an Amendment he had moved in Committee. Sir W. Harcourt rose to Order:—could an hon. Member discuss in the House what had taken place in Committee? Mr. Speaker said the hon. Member was not in Order, the Question before the House being that this Bill be now considered, [221] 1044

Order—Relevancy of Amendment—The Motion, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair," having been made, and an Amendment moved thereon, the Question, "That the words proposed, &c.," was put, and agreed to. Mr. Bentinck desired to move another Amendment. Mr. Speaker said the House had affirmed the Motion that the words "That I do leave the Chair" should stand part of the Question, and any Amendment must be consistent with that Question. The words proposed by the hon. Member were not so consistent, [219] 426

Order—Relevancy of Motion—An hon. Member having brought forward a Question of Privilege, concluded by moving, "That this House do now adjourn." Mr. Speaker said, when the hon. Member had brought the matter under the notice of the House he should have concluded with a Motion founded on the allegation that he had brought forward, [219] 396

Order—Relevancy of Motion—Moved, "That the House do go into Committee on the [Expiring Laws Continuance] Bill on Thursday next." Mr. M'Carthy Downing moved, "That the House do now adjourn." Mr. Speaker said, the Motion proposed by the hon. Member was not in Order. The Question before the House was, that the Committee on the Bill be taken on Thursday, [221] 744

Order—Reading Extracts—Mr. Biggar reading extracts from a book in a very low voice, Mr. Forsyth asked whether it was regular for an hon. Member to read to himself from a book? Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Member was not out of Order in quoting an extract; but he must, at the same time, remind him that the Rules of the House required him to address himself to the Chair, [221] 1002

Order—To quote extracts from newspapers referring to debates in this House is altogether irregular, [221] 309

Order—Free access to the House—In reference to a recent "Count-out" complaint was made that the ingress of Members to the House was purposely obstructed. Mr. Speaker said, he thought it his duty to state that it was no doubt the duty of the Serjeant-at-Arms to keep free access to the House on such an occasion, and he had every reason to believe that that duty was properly discharged last night, [219] 1304

Order—Petitions—On Motion for Committee on Endowed Schools Acts Amendment Bill, Mr. W. M'Arthur presented a Petition from the Wesleyan Body, and was proceeding to read the same, when—Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Member was out of Order in reading the Petition. If he wished it read, he should move that it be read by the Clerk at the Table, [221] 302

Order — Saturday Sittings — The Standing Order [No. 66] says that the House at its rising on Friday shall stand adjourned until the following Monday, without any Question being put: but the House on Friday "adjourned:" meeting on Saturday at 12 A.M. for despatch of Business. Mr. Sullivan asked if the Sitting was regular. Mr. Speaker pointed out that the Standing Order provided "unless the House shall otherwise resolve." The Standing Order had been complied with, inasmuch as the House had "otherwise resolved," and Business had been set down on the Paper to be proceeded with at 12 o'clock this day, [221] 704

Privilege—Explosive Substances Committee—Mr. France having addressed a letter to the Chairman of the Explosive Substances Committee, reflecting on the Chairman, was ordered to attend the House on Monday, June 1; and attending accordingly, and admitting that he was the writer of the said letter, was ordered to withdraw: And an Order thereon being made, Mr. France was called in and admonished by Mr. Speaker. And it was directed that the material part of a letter of Mr. France, which contained Mr. France's withdrawal of the expressions which were offensive to the House, should appear upon the Journals, [219] 755

Privilege—Mr. Herbert brought under the notice of the House, as breaches of Privilege, two paragraphs in The Morning Post, one of which stated, incorrectly, that the Select Committees of the House would not meet on Monday owing to the visit of the Emperor of Russia to the City. Mr. Speaker said, it was no doubt highly to be regretted that an incorrect account should be published of the proceedings of the House; but he must remind hon. Members that they had an authorized record of their proceedings in the Votes and Proceedings of the House, and it was to that record that hon. Members should pay attention, [219] 395

Privilege — Committal of a Member by the Court of Queen's Bench for Contempt—Mr. Speaker reads to the House a Letter from the Lord Chief Justice of England notifying that it had been his duty to commit Mr. Whalley, a Member of the House, for contempt of his Court, [218] 52

Mr. Speaker submits whether the said Letter be referred to the Committee of Privileges or to a Select Committee, 108

Questions—Mr. Speaker having ruled that a certain Question was not out of Order, said —At the same time the Prime Minister would have been quite entitled to decline to answer a Question of that character, as an Answer might involve argument and debate.—Ireland —Coercive Legislation, [218] 544

Supply—It is irregular to discuss the provisions of a Bill on the Question for going into Committee of Supply.—Colonial Office—The Official Staff, [221] 795, 720

GENERAL INDEX TO SESSION 1875.

EXPLANATION OF THE ABBREVIATIONS.

It being a principal object of this Index, that the proceedings on each Motion shall be completely recorded, some abbreviations of forms were necessary. Those who are accustomed to the proceedings of Parliament will readily fill up the voids. Those who are not so familiar, may find the following explanation useful, but will find the whole formulæ set out at length in the "Contents."

The names which immediately follow the title of a Bill are those of the Peers or hon. Members who have charge of the Bill.

The numbers which are added at stages of Bills are the official numbers of the prints and reprints ordered at each stage, and, with the Statute, will enable the reader to follow all the changes the Bill has undergone.

The entries—Moved, "That the Bill be now read 2ª;" Amendt. "this day six months;" Question put, "That 'now,' &c."—indicate the usual form of raising the issue—namely, "That the word 'now' stand part of the Question."

"The Ballot, Amendt. on Committee of Supply' indicates that the Question was raised by means of an Amendment moved on the Motion (after the Order of the Day for the House to go into Committee of Supply had been read), "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." In this case the issue is formally raised by the Motion "To leave out from the word 'That' to the end of the Question, in order to add" other words. The decision is taken on the Question, "That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the Question."

The Nos. added to the "Parliamentary Papers" are in most cases those given in the Commons' "List of Papers for Sale."

INDEX

TO

HANSARD'S PARLIAMENTARY DEBATES,

IN THE SECOND SESSION OF THE

TWENTY-FIRST PARLIAMENT OF THE UNITED KINGDOM.

38° & 39° VICTORIA.

EXPLANATION OF THE ABBREVIATIONS.

In Bills, Read 1°, 2°, 3°, or 1ª, 2ª, 3ª, Read the First, Second, or Third Time.—In Speeches' 1R., 2R., 3R., Speech delivered on the First, Second, or Third Reading.—Amendt., Amendment.—Res., Resolution.—Comm., Committee.—Re-Comm., Re-Committal.—Rep., Report.—Consid., Consideration.—Adj., Adjournment or Adjourned.—cl., Clause.—add. cl., Additional Clause.—neg., Negatived.—M. Div., First or Second Division.—l., Lords.—c., Commons.

When in this Index a * is added to the Reading of a Bill, it indicates that no Debate took place upon that stage of the measure.

When in the Text or in the Index a Speech is marked thus *, it indicates that the Speech is reprinted from a Pamphlet or some authorized Report.

When in the Index a † is prefixed to a Name or an Office (the Member having accepted or vacated office during the Session) and to Subjects of Debate thereunder, it indicates that the Speeches on those Subjects were delivered in the speaker's private or official character, as the case may be.

Some subjects of debate have been classified under the following "General Headings:"—ARMY — NAVY — INDIA — IRELAND — SCOTLAND — PARLIAMENT — POOR LAW—POST OFFICE—METROPOLIS — CHURCH OF ENGLAND — EDUCATION — CRIMINAL LAW — LAW AND JUSTICE — TAXATION, under WAYS AND MEANS.

Amendt. on Committee of Supply July 31, To leave out from "That," and add "this House has learnt with concern and regret that, notwithstanding the plain provisions of 'The Debtors Act, 1869,' the County Court Judge at Farnham committed to prison one William Smallbones for non-payment of a sum of costs awarded against him in a suit in equity, such imprisonment being, in the opinion of Her Majesty's Attorney General, stated to this House on the 22nd of July, wholly illegal, and extending continuously over eight months; and that, inasmuch as it appears that such imprisonment took place under an order of the judge made as upon the commission of a contempt of court, this House is of opinion that the exercise of the power of committal for contempt of court by County Court judges ought to be placed under greater legislative restraint" (Mr. Charles Lewis) v., [226] 291; after short debate, Question put, "That the words, &c.;" A. 74, N. 18; M. 56

Moved, "That it appears by the Accounts laid before this House that the total Revenue of India for the year ending the 31st day of March 1874 was £49,598,253; the charges in India, including the collection of the Revenue, Interest on Debt, and Public Works ordinary, were £42,094,995; the charges in England (including £1,156,535, the value of Stores supplied to India) were £7,873,574; the Guaranteed Interest on the Capital of Railway and other Companies in India and in England, deducting net Traffic Receipts, was £1,437,352, making a total charge for the same year of £51,405,921; and there was an excess of Expenditure over Income in that year amounting to £1,807,668; that the charge for Public Works extraordinary was £3,553,307, and that, including that charge, the excess of Expenditure over Income was £5,360,975" (Lord George Hamilton), 797
Amendt. at the end to add "and, in the opinion of the Committee, the Statement of Indian Finance now submitted is unsatisfactory, because the policy of the Government of India is based upon the principle of borrowing large sums of money in each year, without reference to the income of the Country, in order to carry on, through Government agency, undertakings of a speculative character, and classed as 'extraordinary,' many of which, especially works of irrigation, past experience has proved to be unremunerative" (Mr. Smollett); after further long debate, Question put, "That those words be there added;" A. 21, N. 66; M. 45

Scotland — Education . [Parliamentary Grants]
Considered in Committee April 23, [223] 161
Resolved, That it is expedient to amend the sixty-seventh section of "The Education (Scotland) Act, 1872," by authorising Grants to be made by Parliament in aid of Schools and Teachers Residences in the counties of Sutherland and Caithness, in the same manner as Grants may be made under the said section to Schools in the counties of Inverness, Argyll, Ross, Orkney, and Shetland; Resolution agreed to

Scotland—Education (Scotland) Act
Moved, "That it is expedient that the provisions of the Scotch Education Act relating to the transference of Denominational and Subscription Schools to School Boards be assimilated to those of the English Education Act, in order that such transference may be facilitated, and the burden on the ratepayers thereby relieved; and that an effectual audit of the annual accounts of School Boards in Scotland be by law provided" (Sir William Stirling-Maxwell) May 25, [224] 894; after debate, Question put, and negatived

Spain—The Civil War—Recognition of Belligerent Rights
Moved, "That, in the opinion of this House, it is desirable that, having regard to the extent and prolongation of the Civil War in Spain and the interests connected with this Country therein involved, the belligerent rights of that portion of the Spanish population who maintain in their provinces the claims of Don Carlos to the throne of Spain be recognised by Her Majesty's Government" (Mr. O'Clery) May 4, [224] 42; after short debate, Motion withdrawn

SPEAKER, The (Right Hon. H. B. W. BRAND), Cambridgeshire
Amendments—If words proposed by way of Amendment be added to the original Question, no Amendment can be proposed except in the form of an addition to those words

A Member who has already spoken, being desirous of proposing an Amendment, must place that Amendment in some other Member's hands.—Education in Rural Districts, [222] 1120
Amendments—On Motion, "That the Committee do consist of 21 Members"—an Amendment moved to insert "22." An hon. Member proposed "23" for the purpose of adding a particular Member. Mr. Speaker said, that until the first Amendment had been disposed of, the hon. Member could not move his Amendment.—Banks of Issue—Select Committee, [223] 869
Amendment on Amendment—An hon. Member having moved an Amendment (which had not yet been proposed to the Committee) Sir Charles Dilke said he would amend that Amendment by proposing to add to it certain words. Mr. Speaker said the House must first dispose of one Amendment; after that the words could be added, [226] 360
Amendments—Order—A Motion and an Amendment being before the House, the Motion cannot be withdrawn unless the Amendment be withdrawn also.—Loans to Foreign States Committee, [223] 1149

Counts-out—The Count-out on June 8—Mr. Newdegate said, he desired to ask the Speaker, who it was that called his attention to the fact that there were not 40 Members present at seven minutes past nine o'clock last evening? Mr. Speaker said, that the Question was one of a very unusual character. He presumed that the matter was no secret; on the contrary, it was well known that the hon. Member who called attention to the fact that 40 Members were not present was the hon. Member for Louth (Mr. Kirk), [224] 1562

Debate—Personal Explanation—The House is specially indulgent in a matter of personal explanation. An hon. Member entering into a personal explanation of words attributed to him by another hon. Member is perfectly in order, [222] 1187
Debate—Limit of Personal Explanation, [223] 367; [226] 525, 567
Debate—Limitation of Explanation—"If the hon. Member desires to make an explanation, the House will no doubt hear him; but he is not entitled to make a second speech on the Question before the House."—Privilege—The Queen v. Castro, [223] 1009, 1559
Debate—Time for Explanation—A Member being in possession of the House, another Member who is desirous of making an explanation may do so, with the consent of the House, as soon as the former Member has concluded his speech, [226] 357
Debate—Explanation—Speaking a second time—An hon. Member who has already spoken in moving that a Bill be read the second time is not entitled to make a second speech:—he may, however, explain to the House the course he proposes to take.—Sheriff Courts (Scotland) Bill, [223] 1764

Debate—Latitude of Observations—On Question, That the House do resolve itself into Committee of Supply, an hon. Member is in Order, in speaking on that Question, in referring to our foreign relations, colonial affairs, &c., [222] 971

Debate—Premature discussion of a subject—Mr. Speaker: In reference to the Motion of the hon. Member for Swansea, which stands next upon the Paper, I have to state for the information of the House, that by the Rules of the House it is irregular to propose any Motion which anticipates discussion of a matter already appointed for consideration by the House.—Parliament — Strangers (Presence at Debates), [224] 915

Debate—Premature discussion of a subject. East India Revenue Accounts; Committee moved; an Amendment thereon. Mr. A. M'Arthur, after addressing some observations to the Motion, was about to refer to matters of detail with regard to the establishment of an Indian Museum. Sir George Bowyer rose to Order. Mr. Speaker: Although I cannot say that the hon. Member for Leicester is out of Order in his remarks, I submit that the more convenient course would be to discuss the Amendment immediately before the House, and to reserve for the Committee the consideration in detail of the Financial Statement, [226] 796

Debate—Premature discussion of Clauses and Amendments—Order for Committee read; Moved, "That Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair." An hon. Member is at liberty to discuss the main provisions of the Bill, but not to proceed in detail through the clauses—nor to discuss Amendments—until the Bill is in Committee, [223] 35; [224] 1297; [225] 684, 1683

Debate — Relevancy of Observations — Mr. Speaker cautions an hon. Member that he was approaching the limits of propriety which confine hon. Members, in speaking, to that which is relevant to the subject in hand.—Privilege—Dr. Kenealy, [222] 1199

Debate—Relevancy of Observations—"Under cover of a Motion for the Adjournment of the House the hon. Member is attempting to discuss a matter which is not regularly before the House."—State and Progress of Pubic Business, [225] 1664

Debate—Irrelevancy, [225] 1200, 1423, 1746, 1747

Debate—Repetition—I have to suggest to the hon. Member that he is drawing too much on the indulgence of the House in repeating observations which he has made more than once.—The Queen v. Castro, [224] 178; [226] 525

Debate — Unparliamentary Language—"If I caught the language of the hon. and gallant Member correctly, he said of the hon. Member for Stoke, that he went about the country telling palpable lies. I must remind the hon. and gallant Member that such remarks are unparliamentary."—The Queen v. Castro, [223] 1015

Debate—Unparliamentary Language—A Member saying that "he did not know whether the hon. and learned Member was so acting on his own opinion, or at the suggestion of others, but he certainly thought it was not honourable for him to sit silent under the circumstances"—Mr. Speaker, interposing, said the right hon. Gentleman had no right to question the honour of any Member of the House, [222] 329

Debate — Unparliamentary Language — Mr. Plimsoll: I am determined to unmask the villains who send to death and destruction—(Loud cries of "Order.")—Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member makes use of the word "villains." I trust he did not use it with reference to any Member of this House. Mr. Plimsoll: I did, Sir; and I do not mean to withdraw it. And the hon. Member continuing to refuse to retract the expression, Mr. Speaker submitted his conduct to the judgment of the House.—Merchant Shipping Acts Amendment Bill, [225] 1824

Debate — Irregularity of Language — An hon. Member having said, "was it not palpably untrue, deliberately false, on the part of the Lord Chief Justice—" was called to Order. Mr. Speaker said, that the language of the hon. Member, though strong, was not out of Order, not being applied to any Member of the House; he hoped, however, that he would restrain his language.—The Queen v. Castro, [223] 1577; [224] 1068, 1069; [226] 339

Order—It is one of the Rules of the House that every hon. Member should address himself to the Chair.—Privilege—The Queen v. Castro, [223] 1002, 1458

Order—A Member is not in Order in reading his speech, [223] 178

Order—Notice of Motion—"When an hon. Member has given Notice of his intention to bring before the House a Motion, the House expects that before that Motion is offered and submitted to the House from the Chair, the terms of that Motion shall, within a reasonable time, be in its possession."—The Queen v. Castro, [223] 1219

Order—Notice of Motion—An hon. Member, at the end of debate, after Motion for Papers put and agreed to, proposed to move for additional Papers relating to the same subject: Mr. Speaker reminded the hon. Member that in accordance with ordinary practice he should give notice of his Motion for a future day.—John Mitchel, [222] 421-2

Order — Business of the House—"With the permission of the House a Motion relating to the Business of the House can be made now [without Notice]. If it is the pleasure of the House that the Motion should be put at once, I will at once put it."

But this must be by the "general assent"—that is, the "universal assent"—of the House; if there had been a single dissentient voice Mr. Speaker would have submitted to the House that such a Question could not be put.—Government Orders of the Day, [226] 94, 127

Order—Postponement of Motions—The hon. Member for Hull having notified his intention to postpone the second reading of the Intoxicating Liquors (Sundays) Bill, which stood on the Order Book for the 2nd June, to the 30th June; Mr. Fielden thereon moved that the Order for the Second Reading be discharged. Mr. Speaker pointed out to the House the extreme inconvenience and obstruction to Business that would ensue if Motions of this kind were to be opposed, [224] 1236

Order—It is the duty of an hon. Member who has brought a matter before the House to conclude with some Motion, which may be discussed by the House itself.—Privilege— The Queen v. Castro, [222] 325

Order—When no debate may be had—Increase of the Episcopate Bill—Mr. Beresford Hope, in moving that the Order for the House to go into Committee on this Bill be discharged, was proceeding to offer observations on the subject. Mr. Speaker said, that no discussion on the merits of the Bill would be in Order on the present occasion, [226] 859

Order—Irregular discussion of a dropped Order It would be out of Order, on the Motion "That the House at its rising do adjourn till Thursday next" to discuss the merits of a Motion which, standing on the Orders of a previous day, had not then come on, [224] 593

Order—Adjournment of the Debate—It is not competent for an hon. Member who has seconded the Motion for the rejection of a Bill to move the adjournment of the debate. —Metropolis Gas Companies Bill, [224] 625

Order—Adjournment of the House—An hon. Member who has addressed the House on the Question before the House cannot move the Adjournment of the House.—Increase of the Episcopate Bill, [224] 1083

Order—Consideration of Lords Amendments to Public Bills—Mr. Speaker states the practice of the House with respect to the consideration of Lords Amendments to Public Bills, and reads to the House the Standing Order in relation thereto, [225] 650

Order—Allusion to proceedings in the House of Lords—Lord Eslington said, that the matter had been made the subject of explanation in "another place." Mr. Speaker said, that any such reference was irregular. —Peace Preservation (Ireland) Bill, [224] 406

A statement in the House of Lords is not a proper subject of debate in this House.—[225] 512

Order—Lords Amendments.—Conspiracy and Protection of Property Bill—Lords Amendments considered. It was pointed out that the words "of service or of hiring" in Clause 5 had been altered to "of service and of hiring;" whereas there was no trace of such an Amendment having been moved in the other House. Mr. Assheton Cross explained that the words had been altered by the officers in the other House from no political motive, but under the idea that the alteration was necessary for the intention and sense of the clause. Mr.

Speaker said, he believed that the alteration in the presented Bill had been accidental; and this House could only deal with the Bill as it came from the House of Lords, [226] 710

Order—Reference to proceedings in Committees—It is not competent for an hon. Member to refer to matters which have arisen in Committee before the Committee has reported to the House

It is irregular to refer in debate to what has taken place before the Committee;—or into the merits of the inquiry before the Committee.—Committee on Foreign Loans, [223] 789, 793, 1134

Opposed Business—It is not necessary, in order to stop the progress of a Bill at the hours prescribed in the Standing Orders in that behalf, that an hon. Member should rise in his place and oppose it: If there be any opposition to the progress of a Bill brought on at those hours, the measure could not, according to the Standing Orders, be proceeded with

And an hon. Member objecting to proceeding with a Bill under the circumstances stated would not, according to the practice of the House, be held to have spoken, [224] 1616

Opposed Business—As there was opposition, the Bill must, by the Standing Orders of the House, be upon the Paper for the Evening Sitting.—National Debt (Sinking Fund) Bill, [225] 180

Petitions—An hon. Member is not in Order in presenting a Petition during a debate on the Second Reading of a Bill.—Sale of Intoxicating Liquors on Sunday (Ireland) Bill, [224] 123

Petitions—Limit of Observations in presenting —Mr. Whalley having presented a Petition from Mr. G. Skipworth, proceeded to make a statement. Mr. Speaker said, the hon. Member was at liberty to state generally the prayer and substance of the Petition, but beyond that he was not entitled to go. If he wished to have the Petition read by the Clerk at the Table, he could have it so read. The Tichborne Trial—Contempt of Court, [223] 878

Petitions—Relating to Public Money—Petition for refunding any sum relating to the public service, or any debts due to the Crown, or for the remission of duties payable by any person cannot be received unless it be first recommended by the Crown.—Petition of G. Skipworth, [223] 879

Privilege—The Public Petitions Committee having presented a special Report in reference to a Petition from Prittlewell, referring to the recent trial of The Queen v. Castro— After long debate, Mr. Speaker said, it was for the House, and not for him, to judge and determine whether the Petition now under the consideration of the House should lie on the Table, and thus become one of the permanent records of the House: And Mr. Speaker added some remarks on parts of the Petition reflecting on himself, [223] 1017

Privilege—Reference to Proceedings in Committee—The matter the hon. Member (Mr. Charles Lewis) wishes to bring before the House is that The Times and The Daily News newspapers have published articles which he considers to constitute a breach of Privilege. The proper course would be that those articles should be read by the Clerk at the Table, and the hon. Member, in raising the Question of Privilege, should confine himself to the points raised in those articles. —Committee on Foreign Loans, [223] 789

Question — A Question involving a matter of argument cannot be put.—The Papacy—O'Keeffe v. Cullen, [225] 1141
Questions—Latitude of speaking in putting a Question—An hon. Member is at liberty to make any explanation which may be necessary for the clear understanding of his Question; but he must not enter upon any general discussion, [224] 473, 1467, 1715
Questions—Latitude in Answer—An hon. Member, in answering a Question, is out of Order in entering into matters of argument.—Parliament—Arrangement of Public Business, [223] 1513; [224] 168
Question — Answer—Mr. Speaker: The hon. Member has put a Question, and received an Answer;—any debate on the Question would be out of Order.—Privilege—Cardinal Manning, [225] 1248
Question—Answer—The hon. Member having already put his Question, and received a full Answer, it cannot be put again.—The Jesuits, [225] 792, 952, 1142
Questions — Alteration of Questions — Mr. Speaker states why certain parts of a Question, of which Notice had been given by the hon. Baronet the Member for East Devon (Sir Lawrence Palk), had been struck out by his authority.—Committee on Foreign Loans, [223] 607

Supply—The House having affirmed the Motion, "That the House do go into Committee of Supply," an hon. Member may call attention to a subject, but cannot make a Motion, [222] 1727; [223] 1932; [224] 652
Supply—On Question, "That the House do resolve itself into Committee of Supply," an hon. Member is in Order, in speaking to that Question, in referring to our foreign relations, colonial affairs, &c. [222] 971

Parliament — Amendment of a Return—Mr. Speaker calls attention to an error in the Return for the Kirkcaldy District of Burghs; and it was thereon ordered that the Deputy Clerk of the Crown do attend the House forthwith, with the Return, and amend the same, [223] 1508
Parliament—Rules and Orders as to the introduction of new Members. Mr. Edward Vaughan Kenealy, who had been returned to this House for the Borough of Stoke-upon-Trent, came to the Table to be sworn, without being introduced by two Members, according to custom: Mr. Speaker declares the invariable practice of the House, and calls attention to the Resolution of 23rd February, 1688 in reference to this practice, [222] 486
Parliament—Strangers ordered to withdraw, [223] 1693; [224] 88

The Serjeant-at-Arms—Mr. Speaker acquaints the House that he had received a letter from Lord Charles J. F. Russell, Serjeant-at-Arms of this House, requesting sanction to retire from that office, [223] 298, 472a
